Declaration

I Randy W Thompson declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington and the United States:

I Reside at 4543 Columbia Hts rd. Longview WA 98632.

I have used the version set forth in claim 1-4.

I own my own business, It is R.R.Rods a custom fishing Rod business. I build and sell Rods all over the U.S. I travel and demo my product in many remote areas, and need the reliability of other good products which do not require electricity. Mr Summerlins invention has provided me with the reliability and the quality to hang large fish carcasses with no worries or embarrassment in front of my customers.

I do not believe Flachs system would provide this to me by design.

This product is a real plus for me because it allows me to use it for hunting as well as fishing with the movement of one pulley from the outside to the center, and supports the weight very well.

Executed this 20th day of June 2005 at Longview WA.
